

Woorneck

Whatever your background, you'll feel right at home at Dousta Galla Woorneck

Our residents come from all walks of life, with a variety of interests. We have been part of the community since 1997, fostering local connections to create a strong sense of belonging for both residents and staff in our aged care residence.

Doutta Galla Woorneck has 62 charming rooms all with a spacious ensuite bathroom. The residence has four interlinked houses, each with its own courtyard and views over nearby parklands.

We can't wait to say welcome to you.

Doutta Galla Woorneck overlooks the willow trees and grasslands of Kororoit Creek reserve. This lovely aged care residence is nestled in a peaceful environment in Sunshine.

The natural surrounds of Doutta Galla Woorneck is a haven for local birdlife who are regular visitors to the grasslands and shady willow trees.

The residence has four interlinked houses, each with its own courtyard. Our residents share a sunny central dining room and gather daily to participate in an active lifestyle program of cultural and spiritual events, physical exercise and a music performance called Showtime Gala.

Woorneck's central location means residents enjoy easy access to buses, trains and community hubs such as the RSL, local churches, Sunshine Plaza and the lawn bowling club.

For the men in the group who like to use their hands and create, we have a weekly resident men's activity program.
